CONSTRUCTION OF ORDER

ATTORNEYS APPEAR BEFORE JUDGE HALL.

Chicago, Dec. 11.-Attorneys for Stuyvesant Fish appeared today before Judge Ball in the superior court and asked for a construction of an order granted Oct. 15 on the prayer of Mr. Fish, restraining 281,231 shares of Illinois Central railroad stock from being counted at the annual election in any vote where they would prove decisive throughout the meeting.

Attorney Lehman, counsel for Mr. Fish, asked that the order be construed for the benefit of all concerned. He sary because of an alleged erroneous the defendant this afternoon,

THIS, IT IS ASSERTED, AROUSED WALKER TO START THE FATAL FIGHT.

Ogden, Dec. 11.-With all the dramatic effect at his command and with a decided effort at bringing out the pathetic side of the case, Attorney W. R. Hutchinson of Salt Lake, chief counsel for the defense in the Beers intimated that this action was neces- murder trial, delivered his first shot for belief on the part of the defendants of the Harriman faction that the election on Dec. 18 no longer hangs on the injunctional proceedings.

Desired Ample Time.

Mr. Lehman said that he desired to give the defendants ample time to bring before the court the question of their right to vote all stock standing in their names.

In his request, as filed in court, counsel for Mr. Fish declares that up to the present time neither of the main defendants, the Union Pacific Railroad company, the Railroad Securities company, nor any of the alleged substitute persons in whose names, it is charged, the stock now owned by these companies stands, have made any motion to dissolve the court's order, or taken any steps which put at issue belief on the part of the defendants of making his opening statement before the men from the time that the prisoner first learned of the influence which his supposed friend held over his wife. He then carried the jury up to the moment when he learned of the defilement of the woman from the lips of the man with whose murder he is now charged. He told of the passion which seized him and declared that the injuries which caused the death of Dr. Beers were sustained in a fight between man and man. He said:

Walker's Story of Tragedy.

"The evidence will show that Walker is a married man, being married eight years ago in Salt Lake. It will show that he courted his wife, as a girl, seven for any motion or resolution, shall not be of avail, and the meeting must be adjourned.
